1           Upon the motion (the “Motion”)<sup>1</sup> of the Debtors<sup>2</sup> in the above-captioned chapter
 2 11 cases for the entry of an order pursuant to sections 105(a) and 331 of title 11 of the United

 5 establishing procedures for the interim compensation and reimbursement of expenses of 6 Professionals (as defined herein); and upon consideration of the Dombrowski Declaration; and 7 this Court having jurisdiction to consider the Motion and the relief requested therein in 8 accordance with 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334; and the consideration of the Motion and the relief
 9 requested therein being a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b); and venue being 10 proper before this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and this Court having 11 determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion establish just cause for the 12 relief granted herein; and this Court having determined that notice of the Motion as provided 13 therein was good and sufficient; and this Court having determined that the relief sought in the 14 Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors, their creditors and all parties in interest; and after 15 due deliberation, it is therefore

16           ORDERED that the Motion is GRANTED; and it is further

17           ORDERED that except as otherwise provided in an order of the Court authorizing 18 the retention of a particular professional, the professionals specifically retained pursuant to an

 22 procedures (collectively, the “Compensation Procedures”):

- 23           a.     Subject to the specific terms below, on or before the last day of each calendar

(each a "Notice Party" and collectively, the "Notice Parties"). Any Professional that fails to file a Monthly Fee Application for a particular month or months may subsequently submit a consolidated Monthly Fee Application for a particular month or months. All Monthly Fee Applications will comply with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, applicable Ninth Circuit law, and the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure for the District of Nevada (as amended, the "Local Rules").

- b. Each Notice Party will have ten (10) days after service (or the next business day if the tenth (10th) day is not a business day) of a Monthly Fee Application (the "Objection Deadline") to object to the requested fees and expenses in accordance with the procedures described in subparagraph (c) below. If no objections are raised on or before the expiration of the Objection Deadline, the Professional submitting the Monthly Fee Application shall file a certificate of no objection with the Court, after which the Debtors shall be authorized to pay such Professional an amount equal to eighty (80) percent of the fees and one hundred (100) percent of the expenses requested in its Monthly Fee Application (the "Maximum Monthly Payment"). If an objection is properly filed, the Debtors shall be authorized to pay the Professional eighty (80) percent of the fees and one hundred (100) percent of the expenses not subject to an objection (the “Actual Monthly Payment”).

- c. If any Notice Party objects to a Professional’s Monthly Fee Application, it must, on or before the Objection Deadline, (i) file a written objection (an “Objection”) with the Court and serve such Objection on such Professional and each other Notice Party so as to be received on or before the Objection Deadline. Thereafter, the objecting party and the affected Professional may attempt to resolve the Objection on a consensual basis. If the parties are unable to reach a resolution of the Objection, the affected Professional may either (i) file a request with the Court for payment of the difference between the Maximum Monthly Payment and the Actual Monthly Payment made to the affected Professional (the “Incremental Amount”) or (ii) forego payment of the Incremental Amount until the next interim or final fee application hearing, at which time the Court will consider and dispose of the objection if requested by the parties.
- d. Beginning with the period beginning on the Petition Date and ending on a date to be further ordered by this Court, (the “First Interim Fee Period”), and at each ninety (90) period thereafter (each an “Interim Fee Period”), each Professional shall file with the Court and serve on the Notice parties an application (an “Interim Fee Application”) for interim Court approval and allowance of the compensation and reimbursement of expenses sought by such Professional in its Monthly Fee Applications, including any holdbacks, filed during the Interim Fee Period, pursuant to section 331 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Interim Fee Application must include a brief description identifying: (i) the Monthly Fee Applications that are the subject of the request; (ii) the amount of fees and expenses requested; (iii) the amount of fees and expenses paid to date or subject to an Objection; (iv) the deadline for parties other than the Notice Parties to file objections (the “Additional Objections”) to the Interim Fee Application; and (v) any other information requested by the Court or required by the Local Rules. Objections, if any, to the Interim Fee Applications shall be filed and served upon the affected Professional and the Notice Parties so as to be received on or before the tenth (10th) day (or the next business day if such day is not a business day) following service of the applicable Interim Fee Application.
- e. The Debtors will request that the Court schedule a hearing on the Interim Fee Application at least once every three (3) months or at such other intervals as the Court deems appropriate. If no Objections are pending and no Additional Objections are timely filed, the Court may grant an Interim Fee Application without a hearing.
- f. Each Professional must file and serve its first Interim Fee Application on or before the thirtieth (30) day following the end of the First Interim Fee Period. The first Interim Fee Application shall cover fees and expenses incurred from the Petition Date through and including a date to be further ordered by this Court.
- g. The pendency of an Objection to payment of compensation or reimbursement of expenses will not disqualify a Professional from the future payment of compensation or reimbursement of expenses under the Compensation Procedures.

1 Any Professional that fails to file a Monthly Fee Application or an Interim Fee
2 Application when due or permitted will be ineligible to receive further interim
3 payments of fees or expenses under the Compensation Procedures until such time 4 as a Monthly Fee Application or Interim Fee Application is submitted by the Professional. There will be no other penalties for failing to file a Monthly Fee Application or an Interim Fee Application in a timely manner.

- 5 h. Neither (i) the payment of or the failure to pay, in whole or in part, monthly
6 interim compensation and reimbursement of expenses under the Compensation
7 Procedures nor (ii) the filing of or failure to file an Objection will bind any party 8 in interest or the Court with respect to the final allowance of applications for 9 compensation and reimbursement of expenses of Professionals. All fees and expenses paid to Professionals under the Compensation Procedures are subject to disgorgement until final allowance by the Court.

10 and it is further

11 ORDERED that each member of the Committee may submit statements of out-of-pocket
12 expenses and supporting vouchers to Committee Counsel, who will collect and submit 13 such requests for reimbursement pursuant to the foregoing procedures for the submission
14 of Monthly Fee Applications and the filing of Interim Fee Applications, and one hundred (100) 15 percent of the amount requested shall be paid in the absence of a timely objection;

16 ORDERED that notice of Monthly Fee Applications, Interim Fee Applications and final 17 fee applications (collectively, the "Applications") shall be served only on the Notice Parties and 18 that all other parties that have filed a notice of appearance with the Clerk of the Court and 19 requested notice of pleadings in this Chapter 11 Case shall receive only notice of hearings on the 20 Applications (the "Hearing Notice"); and it is further

21 ORDERED that the Debtors will include all payments made to Professionals in 22 accordance with the Compensation Procedures in their monthly operating reports, identifying the 23 amount paid to each of the Professionals; and it is further

24 ORDERED that all time periods set forth in this Order shall be calculated in accordance 25 with Bankruptcy Rule 9006(a); and it is further

26 ORDERED that, notwithstanding any provision in the Bankruptcy Rules to the contrary, 27 the Debtors are not subject to any stay in the implementation, enforcement or realization of the

1 relief granted in this Order, and the Debtors may, in their discretion and without further delay,
2 take any action and perform any act authorized under this Order; and it is further

3 ORDERED that the terms and conditions of this Order shall be immediately effective and 4 enforceable upon its entry; and it is further

5 ORDERED that this Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters
6 arising from the implementation and/or interpretation of this Order; and it is further

7 ORDERED that notice of this Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and 8 sufficient notice of the Motion.

the Court and serve such Objection on such Professional and each other Notice Party so as to be received on or before the Objection Deadline. Thereafter, the objecting party and the affected Professional may attempt to resolve the Objection on a consensual basis. If the parties are unable to reach a resolution of the Objection, the affected Professional may either (i) file a request with the Court for payment of the difference between the Maximum Monthly Payment and the Actual Monthly Payment made to the affected Professional (the “Incremental Amount”) or (ii) forego payment of the Incremental Amount until the next interim or final fee application hearing, at which time the Court will consider and dispose of the objection if requested by the parties.

- d. Beginning with the ~~approximately ninety (90) day~~ period beginning on the Petition Date and ending on ~~May 31, 2013, a date to be further ordered by this Court, (the “First Interim Fee Period”)~~, and at each ninety (90) period thereafter (each an “Interim Fee Period”), each Professional shall file with the Court and serve on the Notice parties an application (an “Interim Fee Application”) for interim Court approval and allowance of the compensation and reimbursement of expenses sought by such Professional in its Monthly Fee Applications, including any holdbacks, filed during the Interim Fee Period, pursuant to section 331 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Interim Fee Application must include a brief description identifying: (i) the Monthly Fee Applications that are the subject of the request; (ii) the amount of fees and expenses requested; (iii) the amount of fees and expenses paid to date or subject to an Objection; (iv) the deadline for parties other than the Notice Parties to file objections (the “Additional Objections”) to the Interim Fee Application; and (v) any other information requested by the Court or required by the Local Rules. Objections, if any, to the Interim Fee Applications shall be filed and served upon the affected Professional and the Notice Parties so as to be received on or before the tenth (10th) day (or the next business day if such day is not a business day) following service of the applicable Interim Fee Application.
- e. The Debtors will request that the Court schedule a hearing on the Interim Fee Application at least once every three (3) months or at such other intervals as the Court deems appropriate. If no Objections are pending and no Additional Objections are timely filed, the Court may grant an Interim Fee Application without a hearing.
- f. Each Professional must file and serve its first Interim Fee Application on or before the thirtieth (30) day following the end of the ~~first~~First Interim Fee Period. The first Interim Fee Application shall cover fees and expenses incurred from the Petition Date through and including ~~May 31, 2013, a date to be further ordered by this Court.~~
- g. The pendency of an Objection to payment of compensation or reimbursement of expenses will not disqualify a Professional from the future payment of compensation or reimbursement of expenses under the Compensation Procedures. Any Professional that fails to file a Monthly Fee Application or an Interim Fee Application when due or permitted will be ineligible to receive further interim payments of fees or expenses under the Compensation Procedures until such time as a Monthly Fee Application or Interim Fee Application is submitted by the Professional. There will be no other penalties for failing to file a Monthly Fee Application or an Interim Fee Application in a timely manner.

- h. Neither (i) the payment of or the failure to pay, in whole or in part, monthly interim compensation and reimbursement of expenses under the Compensation Procedures nor (ii) the filing of or failure to file an Objection will bind any party in interest or the Court with respect to the final allowance of applications for compensation and reimbursement of expenses of Professionals. All fees and expenses paid to Professionals under the Compensation Procedures are subject to disgorgement until final allowance by the Court.
